March 2021

By: NLGA Director Julia Brossart

A National Lieutenant Governors Association (NLGA) policy resolution is an expression of opinion by NLGA members on subjects of importance to states and territories. NLGA policy resolutions may also address internal structure, governance, or policy of the Association. A NLGA resolution may provide a framework and/or guidance for NLGA staff in speaking to a topic. Policy resolutions expire after three years.

This resolution states the opinion of members regarding international trade. The resolution supports NLGA's global work. The resolution also provides a framework for the NLGA Director in participating in conversation, meetings, and/or in speaking with the media regarding international trade.
